

CORRECT THE MISTAKES_2

Most sentences have only one mistake, one or two sentences have two mistakes. The underlined words are wrong; /\ means a word is missing.

1. He's the one which has the blue tie on.
2. We like very much the new secretary.
3. Could you tell me how can I get in touch with Mr. Yamamoto?
4. We're not sure /\ he is enough experienced for the position.
5. She's very sick and has been at the hospital for two weeks.
6. We talked during three hours this morning.
7. We're using all the informations we have to make an informed decision.
8. They change often our seats at work.
9. They don't let us to send our clients gifts without getting approval from management first.
10. I called Kate this morning and she told me she'll call me back in a half an hour.
11. We regularly conduct emergency drills for ensuring that we are prepared for an emergency.
12. Brad is 32 now. He completes 33 years in October. two mistakes
13. These are the most cheap gas prices I have seen in my life.
14. Yesterday, I must sent a very important email to a client.
15. We knew there was a gas leak because it smelled really badly inside the house.
16. My parents always told me that it's important being positive.
17. For the bad economic situation, we haven't been able to hire any new people.
18. He says that he's been really tired since several weeks ago. two mistakes
19. A friend of us is going to pick us up at the airport.
20. I've worked like a waiter in the past, but I wouldn't want to do it again.
21. To sleep at work is acceptable in some cultures.
22. Because /\ these problems, we shouldn't move forward with this proposal right now.
23. I'm going to take my lunch break and then to make some phone calls.
24. I've asked everyone to help me with my college admissions essay. Even I asked someone I met on the bus.