

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT

Put the words above the text in the correct gaps in the text below. One of the words come TWO TIMES IN THE TEXT.

ambulances body bags eventually mist become pregnant realise spotted map also brave mess direction fast

I was driving my van with four friends on the motorway. We had set off early in the morning, it had just stopped raining and there was thick fog; we couldn't see more than 10 metres ahead of us, we didn't even know in which 2) _____ we were heading! I soon 3) _____ we were lost. The 4) _____ I had brought with me didn't show any of the places we had passed through.

We 5) _____ a woman standing near the middle of the highway, she was waving at us to slow down. She must have been either very 6) _____, mad, stupid or a combination of all three! It was too dangerous to pull over and stop to pick her up. We were going too 7) _____ and 8) _____ couldn't see anything much because of the 9) _____

Then, we saw what the woman was waving about: there had been a bad accident. We saw many crashed cars; it was a real 10) _____. About a mile further on there were police cars and 11) _____ with flashing lights; we saw 12) _____ on stretchers being taken away and a very 13) _____ woman who was being taken into one of the 14) _____. The 15) _____ cleared and it 16) _____ sunny. Eventually, we arrived at our destination. The following day, we learned that police were conducting a 16) _____ into the crash; nearly 14 people had died!